Seiple Farms
5761 Nor Bath Blvd.,
Bath, PA 18014
Visit Seiple Farms, family-owned and operated since 1889, to explore agriculture in Northampton County! Pick Your Own strawberries and peas in June, or visit in Fall for a fun corn maze, pumpkin patch, hayrides and much more. Check their Facebook page for hours and event updates.

Scholl Orchards
3057 Center St.,
Bethlehem, PA 18017
Since 1948 people have been coming to Scholl Orchards, not only for the homegrown fruits and vegetables, but also for the magnificent smell of the ripe peaches. Started as merely a table with a few baskets of apples on the side of Center Street, Scholl Orchards now offers its customers fresh peaches, nectarines, pears, apples, plums, sour cherries, honey, cider, flowers, and vegetables.

Local Lunch
Jumbars, 1342 Chelsea Ave. #1,
Bethlehem, PA 18018
Twisted Olive, 51 W Broad St,
Bethlehem, PA 18018
Fegley’s
Bethlehem Brew Works, 559 Main St., Bethlehem, PA 18018
Take a break for lunch at one of Bethlehem’s premier farm-to-table restaurants. Jumbars, Twisted Olive and Fegley’s are all located in or near Bethlehem’s historic Downtown center, bustling with fun shops and local history.